

This week in: Mrs. Klaus' Class

We are learning:

Reading: We are working on our centers and reading groups based on student need. We will be focusing on text features, using text evidence to answer comprehension questions, collective nouns, and using text to define unknown words. Our Letterland unit words for the week of Oct 22nd will include (silent letter words) wr-, kn- -mb, -igh, and for the week of Oct 28th we will study -ar and -or words (We will be testing on List A, but practice the spelling rules and not just memorizing words :))

Writing: We will be working on realistic fiction writing based on our EL unit

Math: We will be continuing our understanding place value to read, write and compare numbers unit

Science: We will be starting our sound unit. Be sure to send in recyclables!
